

Strategic equity sale of BALCO

2408. SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE: Will the Minister of DISINVESTMENT be pleased to state:

- (a) whether shareholders agreements for 51 per cent for strategic equity sale of BALCO mandates any capital investment in the first three years; and
(b) if so, the details of the same?

THE MINISTER OF STATE (INDEPENDENT CHARGE) OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DISINVESTMENT (SHRI ARUN SHOURIE): (a) The Share Holders Agreement (SHA) for 51% for strategic equity sale of BALCO does not mandate capital investment in the first three years. However, M*. Sterlite Industries (India) Ltd., the strategic partner in BALCO has submitted a five year business plan for the company.

(b) The following are salient features of the aforesaid business plan:

- (i) The vision will be to make BALCO into an organization that would
 - Be a vibrant and efficient producer of Aluminium metal and value added products
 - Operate to internationally benchmarked standards, with global economies of scale
 - Have empowered employees who have opportunities for career growth.
- (ii) In the long run, the Sterlite group intends to undertake the following initiatives:
 - Modernise and expand Smelter Plan
 - Increase the capacity of the captive power plant
 - Explore the techno-economic feasibility of establishing International Size Alumina Plant in proximity of the bauxite mines
 - Establish international benchmarks.
- (iii) The Sterlite Group w'l leverage its access to a wide base of funding sources for the growth of the company.
